to me

Mr. Minger:

I just wanted to touch base with you. I was at the Open House last night, but honestly did not see any of the teachers, because they were busy with other parents. I always try and attend the Open Houses, but never get upset if I don't get to visit with the teachers. I am confident if there is a concern you would get in touch with me and I know I can always contact you.

I have to tell you how much I enjoy hearing Jessie speak of you. You are easily one of her favorite teacher. You will be one that she will always remember.

A few of Jessie's friends do not have a positive male role model, so not only are you their teacher, you are filling a valuable void in their lives. Even though, Jessie is lucky enough a wonderful father, grandfather and uncle in her life, you have won a special place in her heart as well.

It truly does take a village to raise a child and I am thankful for men like yourself, Mr. Brewer and Mr. Romine in our school district.

Sincerely,
Kim
